ALBION HIGH SCHOOL, ALBION, NEW YORK

Dedication

To Mr. Breuilly, whose friendly "service with a smile" has become a virtual tradition at Albion High School, this year's Chevron is affectionately dedicated.

Foreword

Gersey Islands' loss was Albion's gain in the person of Mr. Jack Breuilly, faithful custodian of Albion Public Schools. During 32 long years in the service of this school, Mr. Breuilly has seen countless dances, athletic events, parties, and routine school days. We of the Chevron Staff are endeavoring to depict school life as seen through his eyes.

FACULTY

"Good Morning". This cheery salutation as familiar as Mr. Breuilly himself has greeted many a student and teacher. At his regular post by the west door, Mr. Breuilly watches the passing parade. A group of teachers saunters by. Through their minds run thoughts of report card marks — deadline today — attendance reports that just won't balance, detention night for one, drill classes for another, papers to be corrected, tests to be made out, noon duty in the crowded cafeteria, decoration suggestions for the dance committee, all the everyday duties of a teacher. Mr. Breuilly smiles for he knows that in spite of all the difficulties, they like teaching. A raised mark, the confession that drill class meant the difference between a passing mark and failure, the realization that finally a student understands are plentiful compensation for long hours of work.

CARL I. BERGERSON
Superintendent of Schools

The Chevron Staff, speaking for the entire student body, wishes to extend its congratulations to Mr. Bergerson, on the anniversary of his twenty-fifth year as Superintendent of the Albion Public Schools.

CLASSES

Mr. D'Amico has unlocked the door to the Inner Sanctum. Save for a few whispering stragglers the noise has settled down to the slow hum of an average school day. A scared looking student hurries by clutching a green pass remembering the gum he enjoyed yesterday. Carefully written excuses are exchanged for pink slips. The bell rings and classes begin. Mr. Breuilly pursuing his duties, passes the Science Room. Intent young faces reveal that a test is in progress — noon study hall for those who fail. From the Chemistry Room comes an odor of hydrogen-sulphide, smelling very much like rotten eggs; farther down the corridor a student leaves Study Hall, a library pass in his hand. And so it is on through the building. Sophomore English and "The Tale of Two Cities"; American History and The Monroe Doctrine; from the gym the sound of marching feet. Just an average day thinks Mr. Breuilly as he leans against his broom.

Class of '50

We are Albion High School's mid-century class! On June 27, 1950 we will have finally made our way through enough history, English, math and language classes to have our names entered as alumni.

If we ever thought we were busy before, this year topped all our previous records. Our class officers were:

President	-	-	-	-	-	JOHN HOWARD
Vice-President	-	-	-	-	-	KENNETH AXTELL
Secretary	-	-	-	-	-	RITA PENASACK
Treasurer	-	-	-	-	-	KAREN MCKENNA

Every Tuesday morning during homeroom periods, we had Class meetings — they will always be, to say the least, unforgettable.

Since our treasury was, to put it mildly, low, we entered into a flurry of selling newspaper subscriptions. The Senior Tea, to which we invited the faculty and our parents was a big success due partly to the good work of Ann Monacelli, Carol Francis, and Florence Yaskulski. If anyone noticed a few sleepy seniors during October and November, they were probably members of the cast of Tish, the senior play. The play went off with the usual number of mistakes, which only added to the fun. Because of Joan Juliano's efforts we had two successful skating parties. Nearly everyone had to limp into Home Room the next day but it was worth it. We gave our treasury another boost by selling Christmas paper. Who will ever forget "Tommy's" leer as he said, "Pay for that paper or else!" Hamburg, pickles, and chocolate milk constituted the main diet of those who attended the Christmas party. We thought that we could make a success of the Football Prom. Although everyone worked hard and had a good time, it was a financial failure. But the dances that we sponsored after basketball games brought in a little money to our depleted treasury. Then there was the Easter Ball, with its sidewalk cafe theme, which we'll always remember and which brought in a $40 profit. Selling candy after school was another project the class undertook. Bob Janus, Ruth Nickerson, Carol Francis, and Leonard Radzinski, Carl Babcock, Eleanor Sidari, and Joan Juliano besides having to sell the candy also had to keep the mice from eating it.

What a year! A moonlight tobaggan party on Pine Hill, ushering for Back to School Night, ordering class pins — more things to tuck away into memories of our senior year. And there's more to come. Carol Francis, Glenn Sprague, John Ferris, and Rodger Wagner are choosing their committees for Class Day. A picnic at Hamlin Beach is being planned by Pat Ludwick and Richard Hollenbeck; Carl Babcock is in charge of our trip to Crystal Beach. Finally will come Graduation Day — 1950.

RICHARD ABBOTT

Richard Abbot's favorite pastimes are his old Ford and girls. In between these two projects, he found time to win himself letters in basketball and soccer at Ontario High School from which he transferred to Albion. Richard has no definite plans for next year.

EDITH AXTELL

Edith has been very active in school. She was vice-president of the F. H. A., an active member of the band, Glee Club, and girls' sports. Among other things Edith's special interests are sewing, cooking, and baby sitting. She plans to attend "Bryant and Stratton" business school in Buffalo next year.

ALTHEA BABCOCK

JOHN E. ALCORN

John, otherwise known as "Acorn", is one of those outdoor he-men who like to go camping. John likes to participate in all sports. Next year John would like to attend college or become a salesman.

KENNETH AXTELL

Kenny is vice president of the senior homeroom, treasurer of the F. F. A. and had the honor of obtaining the Empire Farmer Award this year. His plans include Michigan State next year but now his worries center around keeping his car running.

DONNA BOYCE

"Honey" is a sharp little lassie whose beauty was widely recognized in her sophomore year when she was crowned queen of the Easter Ball. She played the lead in the senior play this year and spoke for Signor Prize in her junior year.

THOMAS A. BROWN

"Loafin'" is Tom's favorite pastime but his activities speak louder than his words. His membership in the Hi-Y, work as manager of advertising staff of the Clarion-Echo, and his athletic activities prove he doesn't loaf too much. He has received a letter in four sports. Next year he plans to take a P. G. course.

DOROTHY BROWNE

"Dot" is a quiet girl who likes to read and listen to popular music. She has been an active member of Senior Service Squad and Commercial Club. She plans for a position as a bookkeeper in the future.

HARRY BUCK

Harry has been active in track and in the F. F. A. He has been Treasurer, Vice-President and President of the F. F. A. Harry says that there is no time for hobbies on a farm but his favorite pastime is hunting woodchucks. A member of the National Honor Society, Harry is planning to enter Cornell University next year.

CAROL ANN BUTTON

Carol claims her favorite pastime is "smiling" and we classmates know that Carol has been busy "smilin' thru" many activities such as the Chevron Staff, Clarion-Echo, and S. S. S. She loves to cook and next year she wants to become a salesgirl in Rochester.

HELEN CAMPBELL

Helen is especially famous for her crowning glory, her blonde hair. She was in the Glee Club and in the senior play. As far as the future is concerned, she plans to do secretarial work, and later set up house-keeping.

JANICE CHESBRO

Many parades have revealed the twirling talent of "Chessie", our head majorette. A very musical girl she has been active in Band and Glee Club. She is also an expert swimmer and has a great liking for a Plymouth car.

WANDA CORWIN

Wanda, who joined us in our Junior year, is usually busy with her various activities. She spoke for Signor Prize; she was in the Senior Play; and she took part in the Junior Town Meeting of the Air. She is also corresponding secretary of the Student Council.

RUTH ANN CURTIS

Extra-curricular activities seem to take up a major portion of Ruth's time. She spoke for Signor Prize in her junior year, was a member of typing staff last year, and is manager of it this year. She is scheduling operator for the audio-visual club this year.

PAUL DAVIS

"Sam" has supplied the F. F. A. with good times since his freshman year besides holding the esteemed office of Watch Dog in that organization. He spends his time repairing his battered '29 Chevrolet plus working in the onions a little now and then.

ALICE HEYDEN

A quiet, shy girl with an attractive smile is our Alice. She has been active in Glee Club and is a member of Senior Service Squad. Her plans are indefinite — perhaps school — perhaps work.

RICHARD HOLLENBECK

Dick, who is valedictorian this year, has been treasurer and president respectively of the Future Farmers of America and is business manager of the Chevron this year. He is a member of the National Honor Society and is an Empire Farmer this year.

JOHN FERRIS

Everyone will vouch for the fact that John is the mainstay of the tenor section of the Glee Club. Senior Play, managing sports, speaking contests, plus Empire Boys' State, which he counts as one of his biggest thrills, have left him little extra time.

SHIRLEY FURNESS

"Blondie" belongs to the girls' baseball team. She was a member of the Glee Club for one year. Her hobby, strange as it may seem, is collecting bottles. She'd like to be a telephone operator next year. Since she is quite a letter-writer, she may spend time writing between calls.

JULE ANNE HAZARD

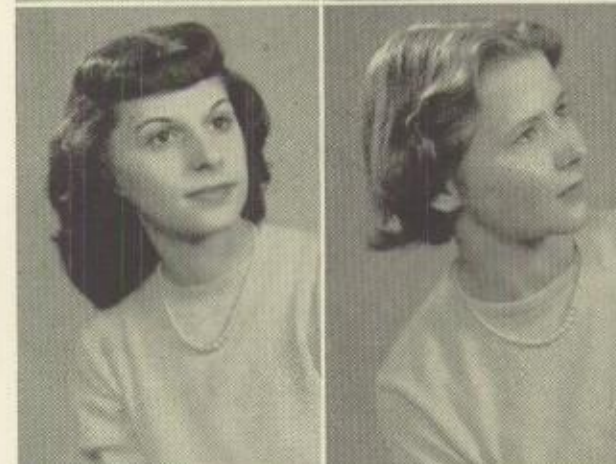

Jule's artistic talents have provided many attractive advertisement posters. We'll always remember her realistic dancing couple at the Match-Me-Hop. She was promotion editor of the Chevron this year, president of the Art Club, and head cheerleader.

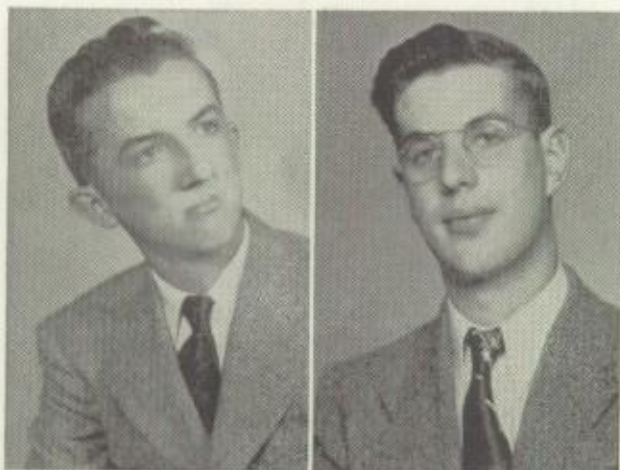

CARL HINMAN

Carl didn't want to admit very much about himself, but he did tell us he is a good sportsman, hunting, and fishing included. He told us, too, he wants to work on the farm in future years and some day own his own.

JOHN HOWARD

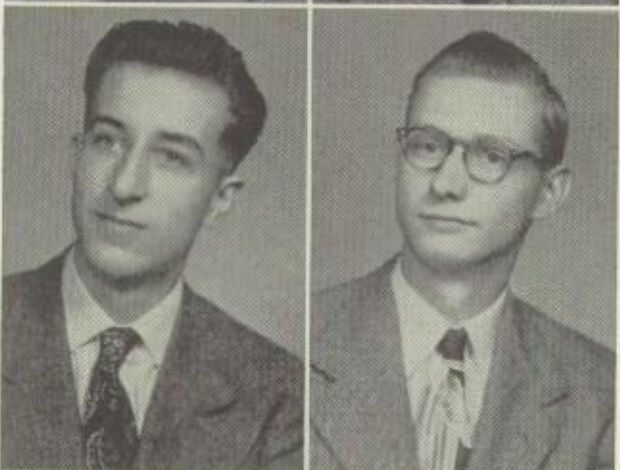

John is our "Mr. President", and a very capable and good one, too. John is a busy man. He works at the A. & P. partime, participates in many school activities, and spends a great deal of his time with his "convertible". John's pastime is seeing people in his office at the "Sugar Bowl". Someday he wants to become a window display man.

WALTER HOWARD

"Waldo" claims he has a very unique string of pastimes — eating, sleeping, loafing and then resting after the strain. He has invested his savings in a 1930 blue Chevy and he furnishes transportation for most of the school. He likes Dixieland Jazz and Stan Kenton records.

ROBERT JANUS

A quick tongue and a ready joke have earned Bob the reputation of the wit of the senior class. His musical talents on the piano accordion have kept him in demand for entertainment. He has been active on both the circulation and promotion staffs of the Chevron.

SOPHIE JOSWIAK

"Archie" as her friends call her, is a pretty busy girl. The S. S. S., F. H. A. and Glee Club keep her busy enough, but she is even busier looking and planning for the future. "Archie" is getting married in July and is moving to Kentucky. She'd better practice up on her "square dancing."

ELWOOD KUTTRUFF

She'll enter nursing school in the fall.

PATRICIA LUSK

"Pat", whose red hair doesn't mean temper, but determination, intends to be a telephone operator. Her seeming quietness turns to skill on the basketball court or any other sports field. When anyone wants the best "sub" for any sport, "Pat" is the first one they ask for.

SHIRLEY ANN McKENNA

Shirley McKenna's favorite pastime is reading. However, she has many hobbies such as cooking, and sewing. She belongs to the F. H. A. and the 4-H. Shirley would like to take the dietetics course at Canton, New York.

BETTY MILLER

Her hobbies and special interests are taking pictures and collecting plants. Her favorite pastime is reading. She plans to become a secretary sometime in the future.

KENNETH MONACELLI

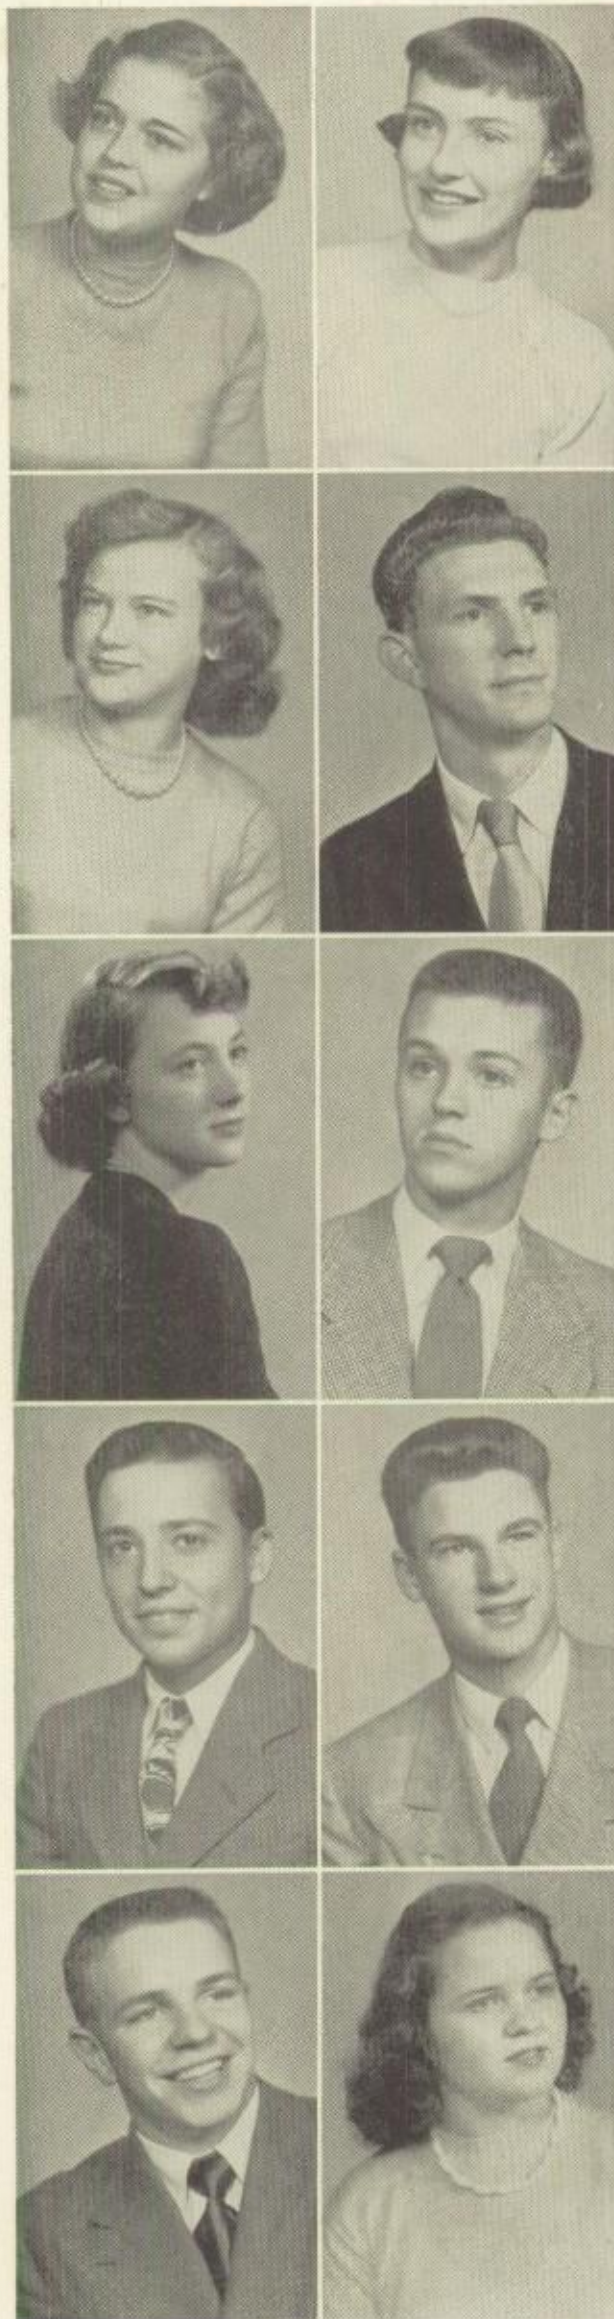

Ken is a football letterman, and president of the Aeroneers. He certainly is well-qualified for this job since he holds a private flying license. Ken will enlist in the Air Force after graduation.

CALVIN NESBITT

"Pete" is president of the Student Council, a member of the N. H. S., secretary of the F. F. A. and an Empire Farmer. He spends his spare time horseback riding and announcing his bachelorhood intentions. He'll enter Cornell next fall.

"Maril" would like to be a nurse. Most of her activities are in preparation for her future. But in spite of that, she has ample time to read, participate in sports, and sleep, as she says she loves to do. She better do it now, because she won't have much time to sleep next year.

Class of '51

The Juniors began this, their busiest year, by electing officers. Joan Larwood was chosen as president, Kenneth Hollinger as vice-president, Beverly Enzie as secretary and Leroy Burroughs as treasurer.

The Junior class this year conducted the largest magazine campaign in the history of the school. The class sold $1,424.50 of magazine subscriptions and celebrated this triumph with a party. Square dances, games, and refreshments constituted the evening's entertainment.

The most popular activities in which the Junior boys and girls participated were both girls' and boys' sports, Glee Club and Band. The girls have taken part in every sport possible in the school. Glee Club also had many members of the Junior class and Band offered quite a number of Juniors the opportunity to display their talents. The Junior boys were quite prominent this year in football, basketball, and baseball. Three Junior girls were on the Varsity cheerleading squad this year. They were Rita Bokman, Barbara Bower, and Nan Lee.

As the yearbook goes to press, the Junior girls are looking forward to their initiation into the Senior Service Squad. They are also eyeing with delight the daisy chain which they will have to make.

Class of '52

Almost two years gone! Only two to go! But we'll be sorry when our time comes to graduate. This year with Jean Forder, President; Marcia Sledzinski, Vice-President, and Joan Sanfilippo as secretary-treasurer, we have had a successful but not too eventful year. We can boast of Delores Goris, our varsity cheerleader, and Janet Lauren, Joan Martina, Norma Piedmont and Barbara Radzinski, our Junior Varsity cheerleaders. We also have an interest in girls' sports. A team of sophomore girls won the basketball sports day event though they had no basketball in gym.

When in need of life-saving, just call a sophomore boy; he can save you. At least it works on the mat. Don't tell the Juniors but actually we copied their idea and had dancing lessons on Friday noon. Thanks to our teachers, Miss Ganiard, Miss DiLaura, and Mr. Schroeder, we can dance, at least theoretically. We had a party in the spring which although poorly attended was a great success. Miss Ganiard with her coveralls and Mr. Schroeder with a girdle helped make the fun.

How many sophomores are brave enough to take a World History regents when you don't have to? About 30. Who? Well that would be telling.

Even though next year means rhetoricals we still are looking forward to it.

Class of '53

The freshman of 1950 started their first year at Albion High School with spirited campaigns for class officers. The elections resulted in Delores Vagg as president, Pauline Hicks as vice-president, and Norman Penasack as secretary-treasurer.

Many freshman boys and girls then joined extra-curricular activities: glee club, band, and sports. As freshman rooters excitedly cheered them on, Robert Hannan and Donald Pawlaczyk made their basketball debuts, scoring for the Junior Varsity team. Three of our talented girls, Sandra Hargrave, Ann Phillips and Helen Brown, were chosen as majorettes — while four others, Claire Clement, Dixie Dragon, Maralee Juliana, and Nancy Spierdowis, gave their all to cheerleading.

"Buy some Swan — Buy some Swan — Buy some Swan today!" — Everyone remembers that soap wrapper campaign at Christmas time. It certainly was fun — especially singing Miss Beeman's song to the tune of "Jingle Bells" over the public address system.

Along with these activities and enjoying Mr. Parker's humor, the freshmen held a successful party in April.

Class of '49

Last year's graduates have been well distributed, some furthering their education in higher schools and colleges, other having found work.

Six girls, Rosalie Canham, Joyce Herman, Betty Kirby, Joan Sullivan, Betty Rowe and Helen Hudson are attending R. B. I.; Joyce DeZetter and Robert Denniston are at Fredonia State Teachers College; Marion Hyland and Mary Sullivan are attending the New York State Agricultural and Technical Institute at Canton; Ruth McMahon, John Lettis and Terry Cole are at R. I. T.; and Ralph Brown, Richard Dickinson and Philip Enzie are attending Cornell.

Others attending college are Alice Bloom at Buffalo State Teachers College; Delores Chatfield at Stephens College; Stephanie Dragon at Keuka; Elizabeth Henderson at Brockport State Teachers College; Jane Parker at Wooster College; Marilyn Shular at Bryant Stratton in Buffalo; Eva Tebaldi at Mercy Hospital in Buffalo; Genevieve Zwifka at Saint Jerome's Hospital in Batavia and Elizabeth Spalla at Plattsburg State Teachers College. John Holman is attending Canterbury College, Indiana; Robert Paganelli is at Hamilton; Joseph Tomasino is at Morrisville; Marcus Phillips at Rensselaer Polytechnical Institute; Gus Revelas at the School of Commerce in Rochester; William Sadlowski at Michigan State and Ralph Dollinger at Niagara University.

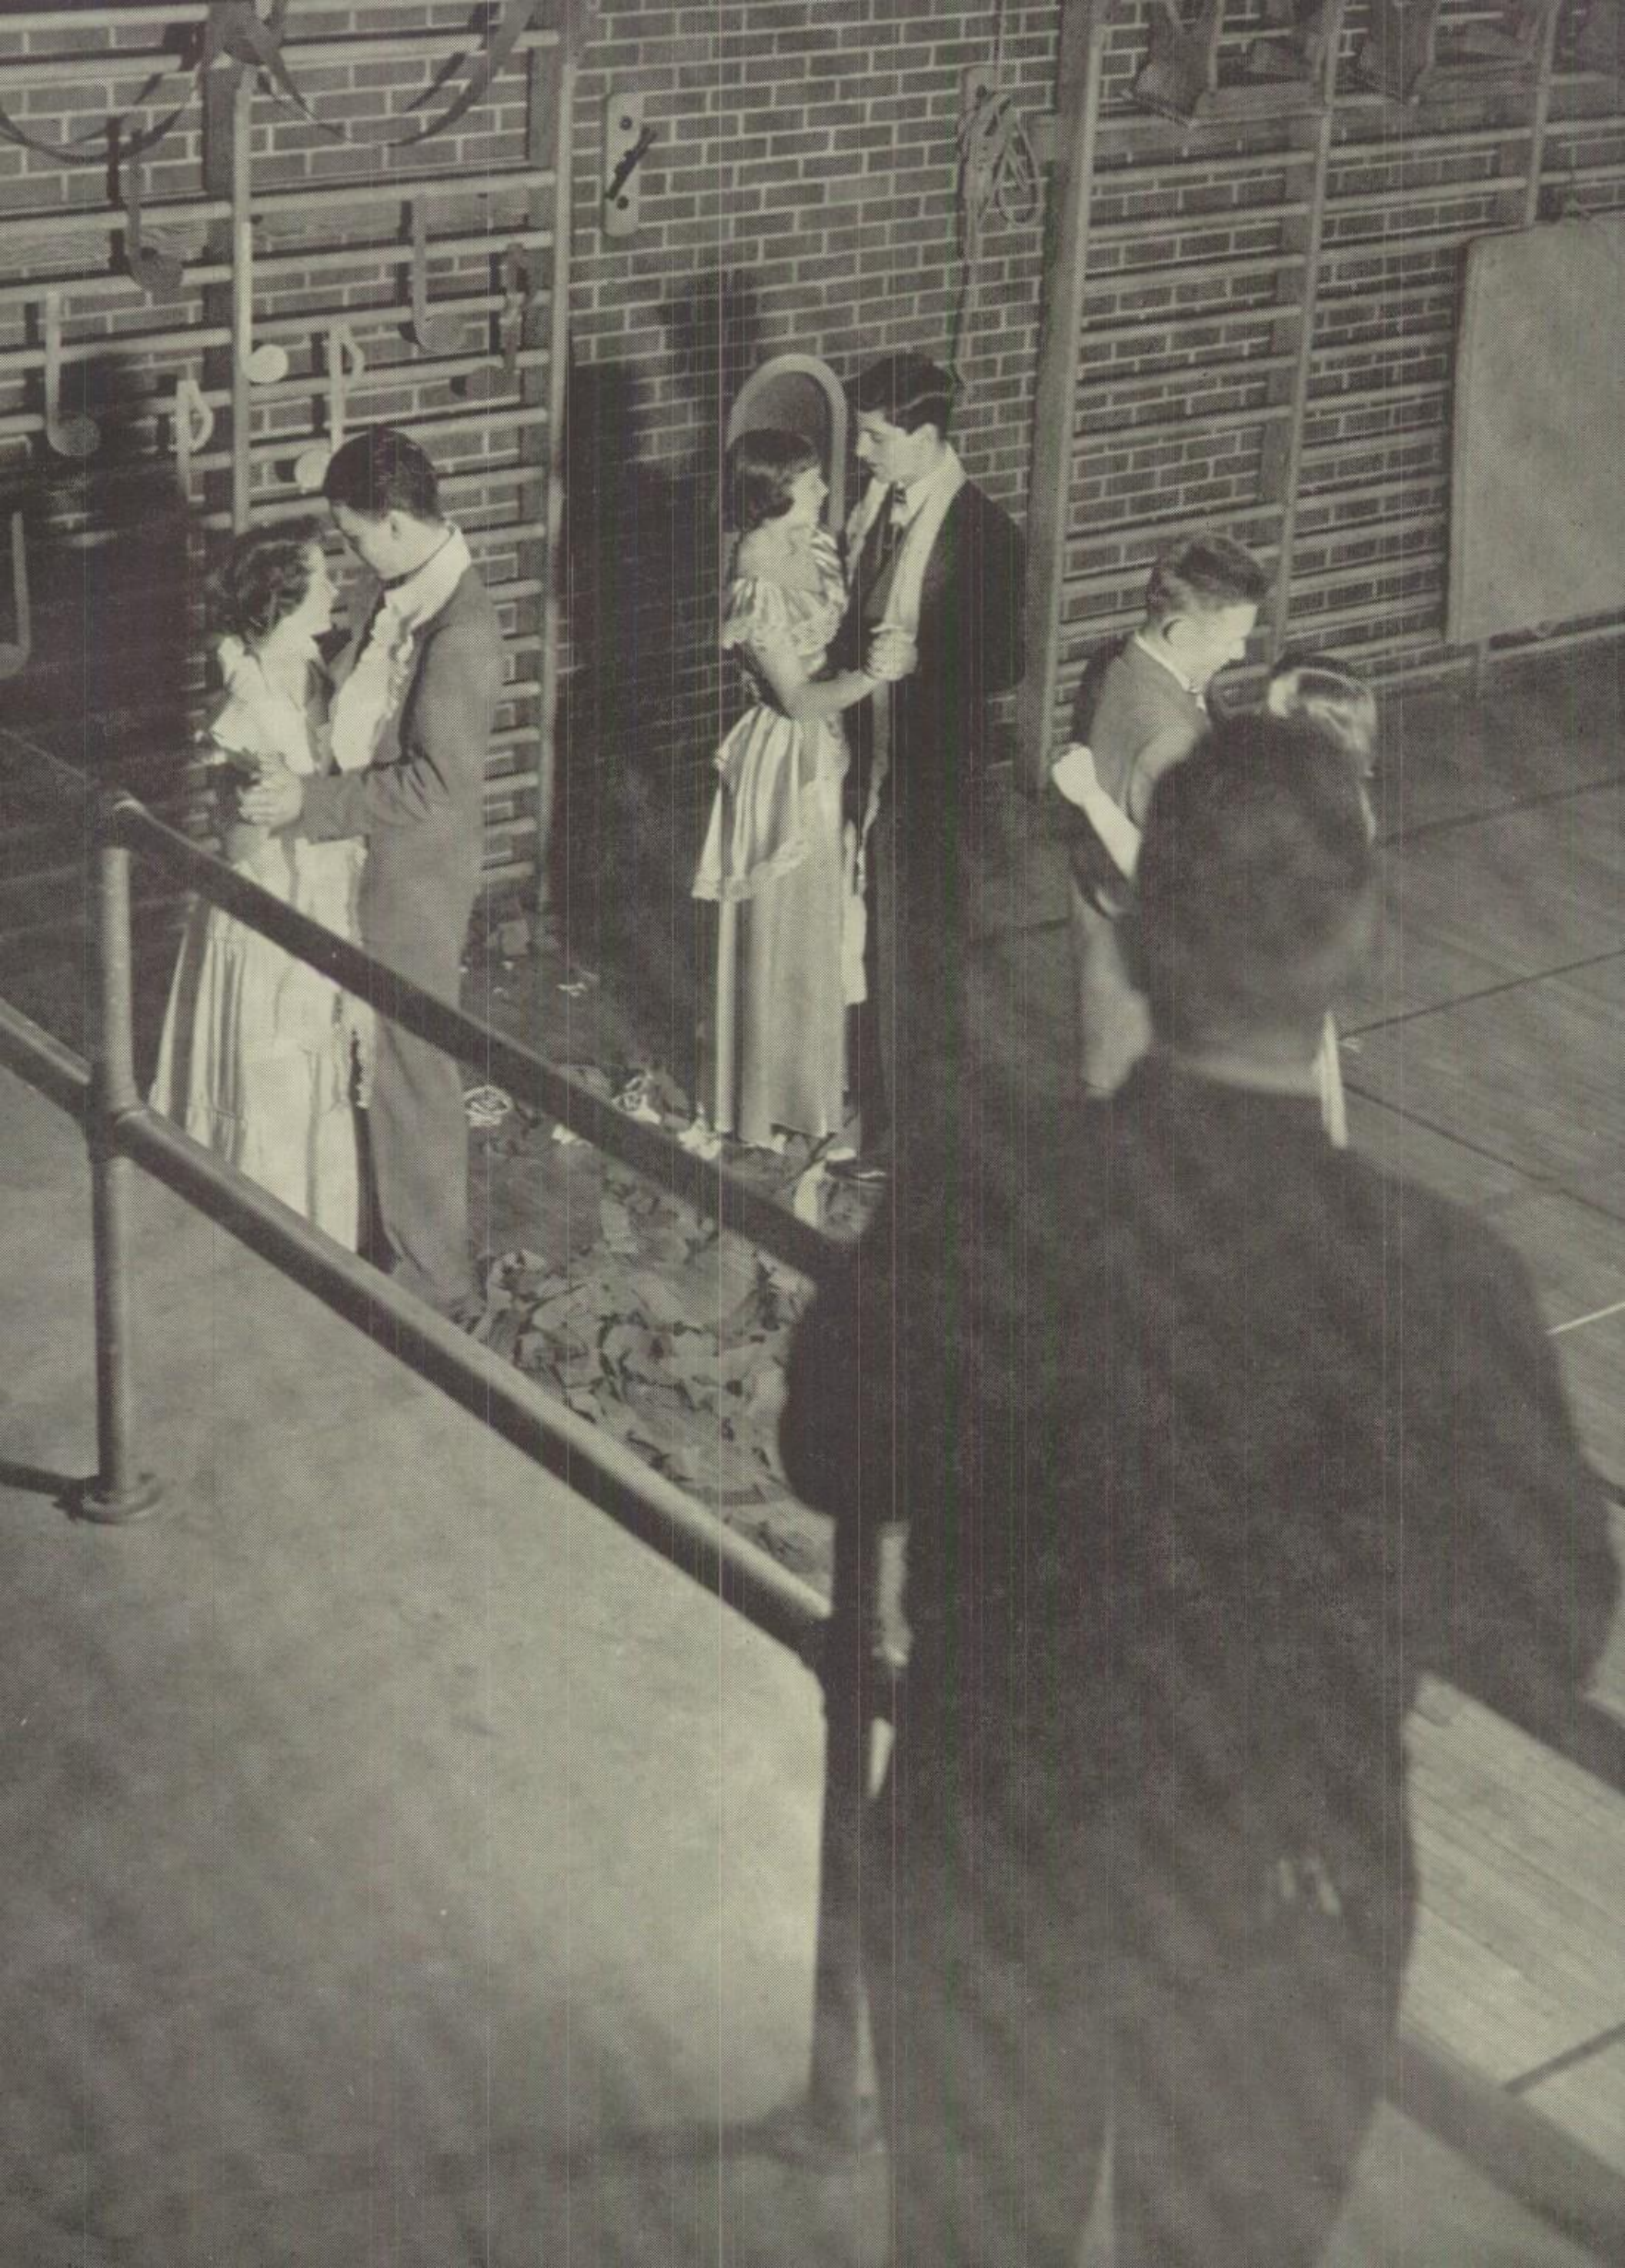

Those working in the Community of Albion are June Earnst who is working at Kedings Bakery, Margaret Jones is delivering milk for Bacon's Homestead Dairy, Rose Marie Miller is a clerk at Goulds Flower Store, Lena Pettine works at Reliable Cleaners, Janice Ferris is a telephone operator, Ronald Ayrault is at Dailey's Motor Co., and Robert Bacon is working at Snyders Laboratory. Joe Ciarico has joined the army.

Ann Jeffery, Muriel Daum, Cheryl Barnes, Patricia Daniels and Shirley Allen have all changed their names to Mrs.

Our Post Graduates class has been increasing until now we have eleven boys and one girl. Dave Canham is President of the P. G.'s; Bill Smith, Vice-President; Howard Smith, Secretary; and Royce Hazel, Treasurer. The rest of the class is consisted of Guido Monacelli, Bill Maine, Ronald Miller, Roy Salmon, Thomas Sanfilippo, Thomas Roberts, Burt D'Andrea and Carolyn McFarland, who came all the way home from Florida to be the only girl in Mr. Monacelli's homeroom. Canham, D'Andrea, and Sanfilippo soon expect to be working at Harrison-Radiator in Lockport.

ACTIVITIES

Noon time is activity time at Albion High. Mr. Breuilly sits in the auditorium — the last seat in the last row — his favorite spot. He is watching the Glee Club stamping and clapping to "Country Style" in preparation for the Spring Concert. Watching, he remembers the many student productions he has seen take shape on this very stage: the Senior Play featuring the merry misadventures of "Tish" Carberry; the solemn initiation ceremony of the National Honor Society; the "new, improved" band finding time for practice and more practice; and the four scared Seniors who represented Albion on the Junior Town Meeting of the Air. Nor were activities confined to the auditorium. Chevron editors attended a week-end conference in Syracuse, the F. F. A. (among other things) graced the Cornell Farm and Home Week with their presence and the Student Council sent representatives to the Inter-High Conference in Rochester. "Yes, it's been a busy year and it's not over yet," muses Mr. Breuilly thinking of daisy chains, class night, and graduation.

During '49 and '50 the Student Council usually met in 312 or the auditorium. Calvin Nesbitt as president, called the meeting to order, and Ruth Nickerson, secretary, called roll and read the minutes. Then Lois Snyder gave the Council's financial standing. Not to be left out are Jack McKenna, vice-president; Wanda Corwin, corresponding secretary; and Mr. Anderson as advisor.

Once again in September, the Student Council managed the hot dog stand during the football season, but didn't sponsor the Football Prom. Instead, the dance this year was taken over by the seniors.

At Christmas time, Jean Jackson headed a group who repaired toys for worthy families. Around December the council was deep in thought on plans for the club program. The plans for the club program were discussed by the council and teachers at a supper meeting; and after much work and planning, the clubs held their first meeting in February.

Buses were chartered by Student Council for transportation to games. Early in the spring, Benjamin Franklin again held the Social Science Forum, to which Wanda Corwin, Richard Hollenbeck, Jean Jackson, and John Merrill were sent as delegates from Albion.

In April, the annual Student Council conference was held in York Central School. The four delegates, Ruth Nickerson, Joan Larwood, David Brust, and Judy Clark, who attended this conference, exhibited our present club program and also submitted the plans for the "Babe Ruth Sportsmanship Program" as a future project.

Red Cross Has Red Letter Year

The Junior Red Cross Council chose two capable leaders at the beginning of the year. Rita Penasack and Kenneth Collins were elected co-chairmen.

The Junior Red Cross Council consists of one member chosen from each home-room. Every student is a member of the Junior Red Cross, but all are not active members. Miss DiLaura is advisor.

The Junior Red Cross has had a busy year. In International activities, a chest, made by the shop boys, was filled with school supplies, reference books, and recreational equipment furnished by the student body. When the chest was filled, it was sent to Washington, D. C., and from there forwarded to a foreign school.

Also under our International Art Program, drawings, showing American life, were made by pupils of Miss Sundell. These pictures were sent abroad to foster goodwill among the children of the world.

The Junior Red Cross has again this year given services to the Batavia Veterans Hospital. The Council has made holiday nut cups and given three parties for the veterans. Our chapter of the Junior Red Cross helped at the Harvest and Spring parties but put on the Christmas party by themselves. The Council provided the entertainment, door prize tickets, decorations, and assisted with the refreshments.

In community service, the Red Cross has done clerical work for the County Girl Scout Committee and the Cancer Drive.

Mr. Gayle Starnes, Chief of Education of American Red Cross Blood Program, came to Albion High School in February to introduce blood studies to the school. Since then the Council sponsored a poster contest to promote understanding of the Red Cross Blood Program.

The Cream of the Crop

The National Honor Society, under the supervision of Mr. D'Amico, began the year with a membership of seven — six seniors, Harry Buck, John Ferris, Calvin Nesbitt, Charles Pedler, Rita Penasack, David Sturges, and Florence Yaskulski, and one P. G., Royce Hazel.

At the first meeting David Sturges was elected President; Richard Hollenbeck, Vice-President; Florence Yaskulski, Secretary; and Rita Penasack, Treasurer.

It was decided to have a meeting on the first Monday of each month with a special speaker. Speakers included Father Brown, Austin Bergerson, Mr. Parker, and Mr. Monacelli.

One of the main projects of the N. H. S. during the year was to monitor at the front door during noon-hours.

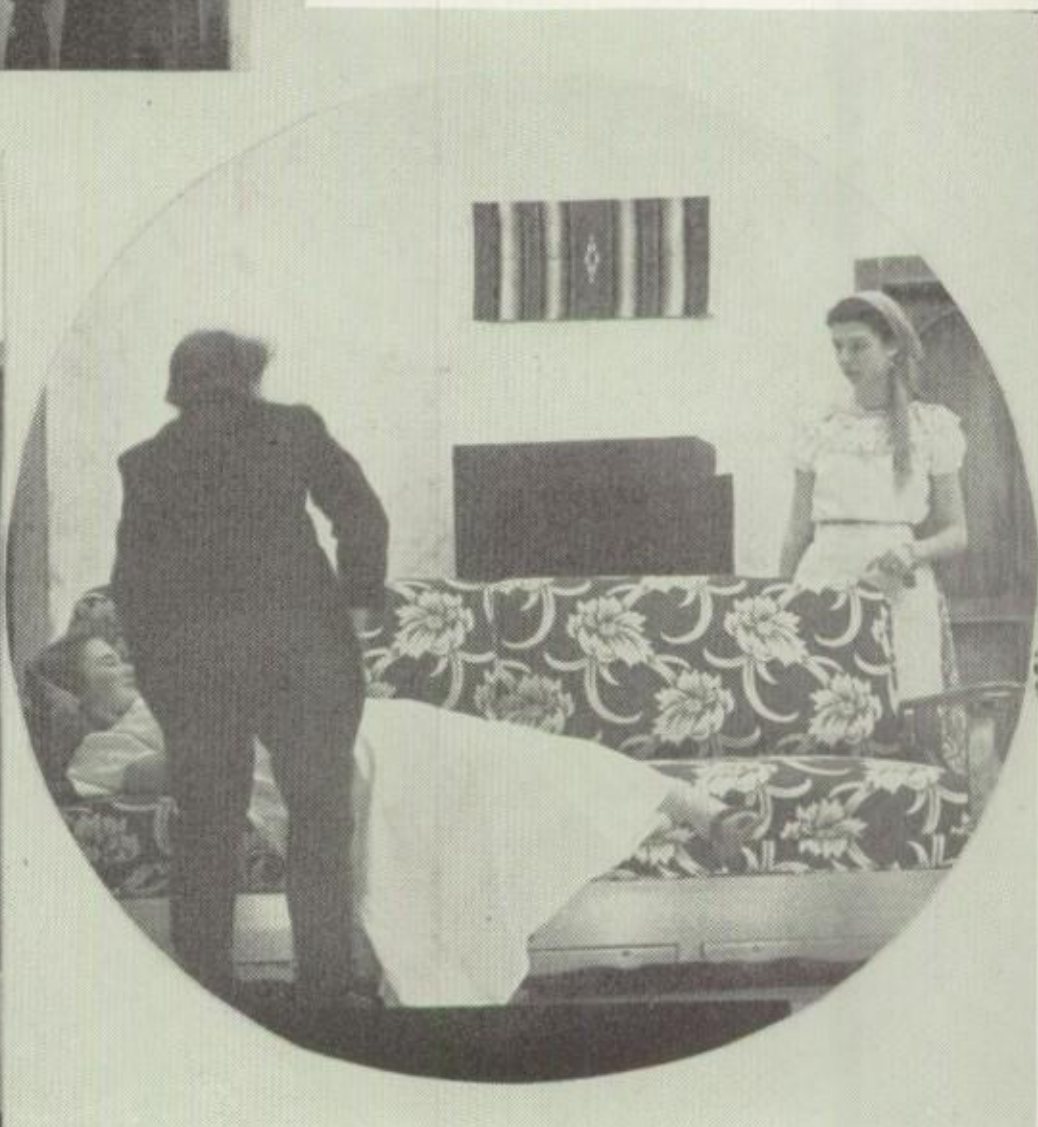

The N. H. S. during the year subscribed to three copies a month of "Student Life". These were placed in the library, and in rooms 238 and 233 for the students to read.

On May 1st, four Seniors, Wanda Corwin, Karen McKenna, Bradley Shelp and Glenn Sprague and three Juniors, David Brust, Richard Cooper and Jean Jackson were inducted into the Society at the annual induction ceremony. After the ceremony, a tea was held in the home-ec. room for the parents and N. H. S. members.

Senior Play Features Jet-Propelled Planes and Three Old Maids

Hey, are you going to try out for "Tish"? "Tish"! What on earth is that? Why it's the senior play of course.

That's how the news got around, and soon tryouts were over.

Soon the so-called lucky people of the cast were wondering just how lucky they really were. Nearly every evening for about two months was spent in hard labor. Dress rehearsal went off as expected — terrible. Everybody had the giggles; the sound effects were rather astounding, even if they weren't realistic. Poor Lem and Tish were left in a very awkward position when Aggie and Lizzie failed to make their entrances on time.

Everyone was delighted with Charita's large vocabulary — "Ugh!"

All the members of the cast were relieved when both Bettina and Wesley remembered to bring their suitcases. Wesley had been used to carrying an imaginary suitcase.

Poor Callie suffered terribly from Luther Hopkin's (her father) attitude toward her friend Ellen. Several hurried exits were completed by Callie from the lunch room when she heard her father coming. After all, no one else would want to bear the brunt of his wrath either.

The light-fingered movie director, Mr. Denby Grimes, soon met his Waterloo, along with his accomplice, Miss Dorice Gaylord, who made her entrance along with the sound of a jet plane. Our sound effects man was a little confused.

Ellen, are you convinced that you hate Charlie? After all, you only said it about four times. You'll give the poor boy an inferiority complex.

The Senior Play certainly was a new experience for everyone.

Oats, Peas, Beans, and Barley Grow

The Future Farmers of America, Albion Chapter, known to the school as the "Ag" boys, have had one very busy year.

First of all the officers are elected: President, Harry Buck; Vice-President, Herman Hicks; Secretary, Calvin Nesbitt; Treasurer, Kenneth Axtell; Reporter, Kenneth Rush; Watch-dog, John Long.

Then judgment, better known as initiation, was passed on the freshmen. It was all right though — who minds standing up all the time?

Soon after Mr. New finally got around to send the order in, our jackets came. And with Mr. New's persuasion, money was collected to buy a jacket for him.

The Christmas season brought more work — and fun. All the money from the Christmas trees that were sold really gave the treasury a boost. The party to which each member brought a girl was a lot of fun for everyone. Probably no one will ever forget Mr. New's plea for senior girls to come with some of the shy boys. After everyone was tired of dancing and basketball, "eats", consisting of well done hot dogs, milk and pie were served.

The Horticultural show in Rochester brought many honors to the boys. Richard Hollenbeck won second prize in the speaking contest and will represent this district in the state finals. The exhibits that were shown were marked second high and a team composed of Lawrence Bilicki, Calvin Nesbitt and Harry Buck won a prize for judging. An annual visit to Farm and Home Week at Cornell was the next event.

The F. F. A. basketball team won some and lost some. A Father and Son banquet and a trip to Crystal Beach helped to round out the year's activities.

The present F. F. A. Chapter is an outstanding one. It is noted not only for its inclination to have good times and its ability along agricultural lines, but also for its scholastic achievement. Three members have been awarded the degree, Empire Farmer — Calvin Nesbitt and Richard Hollenbeck last year, and Kenneth Axtell this year. Three members, Harry Buck, Calvin Nesbitt and Richard Hollenbeck will enter Cornell next fall.

"Straighten Up and Fly Right"

The Aereoneers Club, established to encourage youth activity in aviation through the construction and flying of model aircraft, last fall elected Ken Monacelli, President; Floyd Newlands, Vice-President; and Larie Vagg, Secretary-Treasurer.

Ken Monacelli, Larie Vagg, Floyd Newlands, Richard Grimble and Arthur Coville inducted as new members Don Dawson, Gilbert Frances, Eugene Haines, Herbert Hawkins, John Keding, Donald Wagner, William Neal, John Piedmont, John Reschke, Donald Stockton, James Woodham, Donald O'Hern and John Eible.

Our sole sources of income this year consisted of funds derived from the Student Council for the care of the hot-dog stands and from candy sales at the home basketball games.

During the first semester, we conducted hour long meetings every Monday noon. Later, we started to hold our meetings during the regular club activity period, and in addition, we met at least one hour every week. The members are constructing many different types of model airplanes. We are planning to fly our gasoline-powered model planes on the athletic field this spring.

Chevron Finds Lack of Money is Root of All Evil

In spite of a sorely depleted treasury, this year's Chevron Staff worked long and hard to put out a "bigger and better" Chevron.

Ideas were gathered at the annual conference of the Empire State Scholastic Press Association held in Syracuse early in October. The members of the editorial staff who attended were Sara Cole, Karen McKenna, Richard Cooper, Charles Pedler, and Davis Sturges. Besides gaining many points for a better yearbook, they managed to get thoroughly soaked at the Syracuse-Temple football game, and endanger life and limb leaning precariously out the fifth floor window of the Hotel Syracuse.

The Promotion Staff under Jule Hazard who had the all-important task of raising money began the year's activities with a super-duper hayride. The affair was even more of a success than the staff had bargained for, necessitating two trips in the tractor-drawn wagons. Movies were shown throughout the year and the next big production was the Match-Me-Hop, featuring dressed-alike twosomes. Prizes were awarded for the most original costumes.

The Advertising Staff headed by Bradley Shelp took over a great part of the burden of financing the yearbook. Scurrying around town collecting money for ads, they played an important part in the successful production of the Chevron.

The Circulation Staff under the leadership of Florence Yaskulski went through a trying but successful year collecting Chevron subscriptions. One could identify a member of this staff by the familiar phrase "$1.75, after May 1 — $2.00. Remember students?" Money coming in from these various sources was faithfully counted and deposited by the business manager, Richard Hollenbeck. He also drew checks to pay bills, and there were many of those!

The Literary Staff under the direction of Nan Lee gathered material for write-ups. Although some difficulty was encountered in meeting the deadline, write-ups were finally re-arranged, proof-read, and ready for Ruth Curtis' typing staff, and finally the presses. Rita Penasack planned the senior section.

With its improved cover and altered interior the Staff hopes that the '50 Chevron will be the best yet.

Clarion-Echo Assembles Staff

Because of numerous other activities in school, the Clarion-Echo did not accomplish much, this year. Karen McKenna was named editor-in-chief; Jean Jackson, as managing editor; Fred Keding, circulation manager; Beverly Enzie and Tom Brown, promotion managers; and Dave Pask as sports manager. Mr. Monacelli was our capable advisor. Because of the little support received by the students on the Clarion-Echo staff, the paper was not distributed as often as we would like to have it.

However, the paper managed to publish the Honor Rolls regularly, carry a feature story on a prominent senior and gather the important facts on school events such as the Senior Play, Christmas Choir, Match-Me-Hop, Easter Ball and stories on all athletic events.

The gossip column, with its more personal note, was also eagerly awaited by Clarion-Echo readers.

Holiday Cheer is S. S. S. Project

The Senior Service Squad started off with hopes of making this year a very worthwhile one. Its officers are headed by Mary Ann Stucko as president, Wanda Corwin, vice-president, Ruth Nickerson, secretary, and Lois Snyder, treasurer. At Christmas, the girls made up a number of Christmas baskets filled with canned goods which they distributed to needy families. Right now they are busy planning the initiation of the Junior girls. They are also planning to have a bake sale in the near future.

Christmas Choir and Spring Concert Occupies Glee Club

The Glee Club under the direction of Mrs. Trumble has been very active this year. The Christmas Choir in its annual concert sang several songs. Among them were Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring, The Christ Child, The Holy Child, In The Little Town of Bethlehem, Break Forth, Oh Beauteous Heavenly Light. Instead of an Operetta, a Spring Concert was held. Among the selections were Country Style, O Sing Your Song, Some Enchanted Evening, Little Boy Blue, Two Grenadiers. The boys' octet consisting of Charles Pedler, Mark Bradley, Roy Dutton, David Van Norman, John Ferris, Ralph Miller, LaVerne Miller, John Paganelli, sang Dry Bones, The Army Air Corps Song, and Sleigh Ride. The Girls' Glee Club sang Fairy Flutes, The Land of Nod, and One Morning In the Meadow.

Sherman Marches To Victory

"How do you do. Are you Mr. Sherman, our new music teacher?" "When will Band begin?" "Are we going to have a German Band?" These and many more questions were what Mr. Sherman heard when he arrived here.

We've certainly had our noses to the grindstone this year. We had rehearsals three times a week and one sectional rehearsal plus one music lesson a week. In the long run it paid off. Starting at the beginning of the school year we had a full schedule with the Football games, the All-State Band, the Dance Band, the German Band, the "Free-Supperers" who certainly made fools of themselves, our Pop Concert and the Band Dance. May 5 and 7 were big days, as we were putting on a joint Spring Concert with the Glee Club and participating in the Spring Festival at Amherst. Playing for Commencement rounded out the year.

Our "Pop Concert" was really something. Who will ever forget Mr. Sherman with his beautiful wig, glasses and baton? The "William Tell Overture" made a big hit. Our German Band held forth at the Medina basketball game. In spite of the fact that they specialized in corn, they played quite well. The Dance-Band was another thing which went off with great success. We certainly increased our depleted "bank-account!!!"

A Dance Band was formed with all the leading players of the band included. Their first performances prophesy increasing success. Besides all our fun, we have been working toward the "Uniform Fund" and we hope to proudly display new uniforms next fall.

Outside the Classroom

Upper Left: The Visual Aids Club has given valuable service to the school this year. They are shown here receiving instructions on proper projection technique.

Upper Right: Judging from their expressions, Karen and Jule were surprised by the camera as they painted signs for the Football Prom.

Middle Left: WHEC traveled to Albion to transcribe our Town Meeting on the subject "Shall We Recognize Communist Russia?" The participants were Wanda Corwin, Karen McKenna, Charles Pedler, and Bradley Shelp.

Middle Right: Voted by his team mates the "most valuable player of the year", Guido Monacelli was rewarded by the Seniors with a tie clasp at the annual Football Prom.

Top: A popular new feature at Albion High School this year were the Swingmasters who played for various school events.

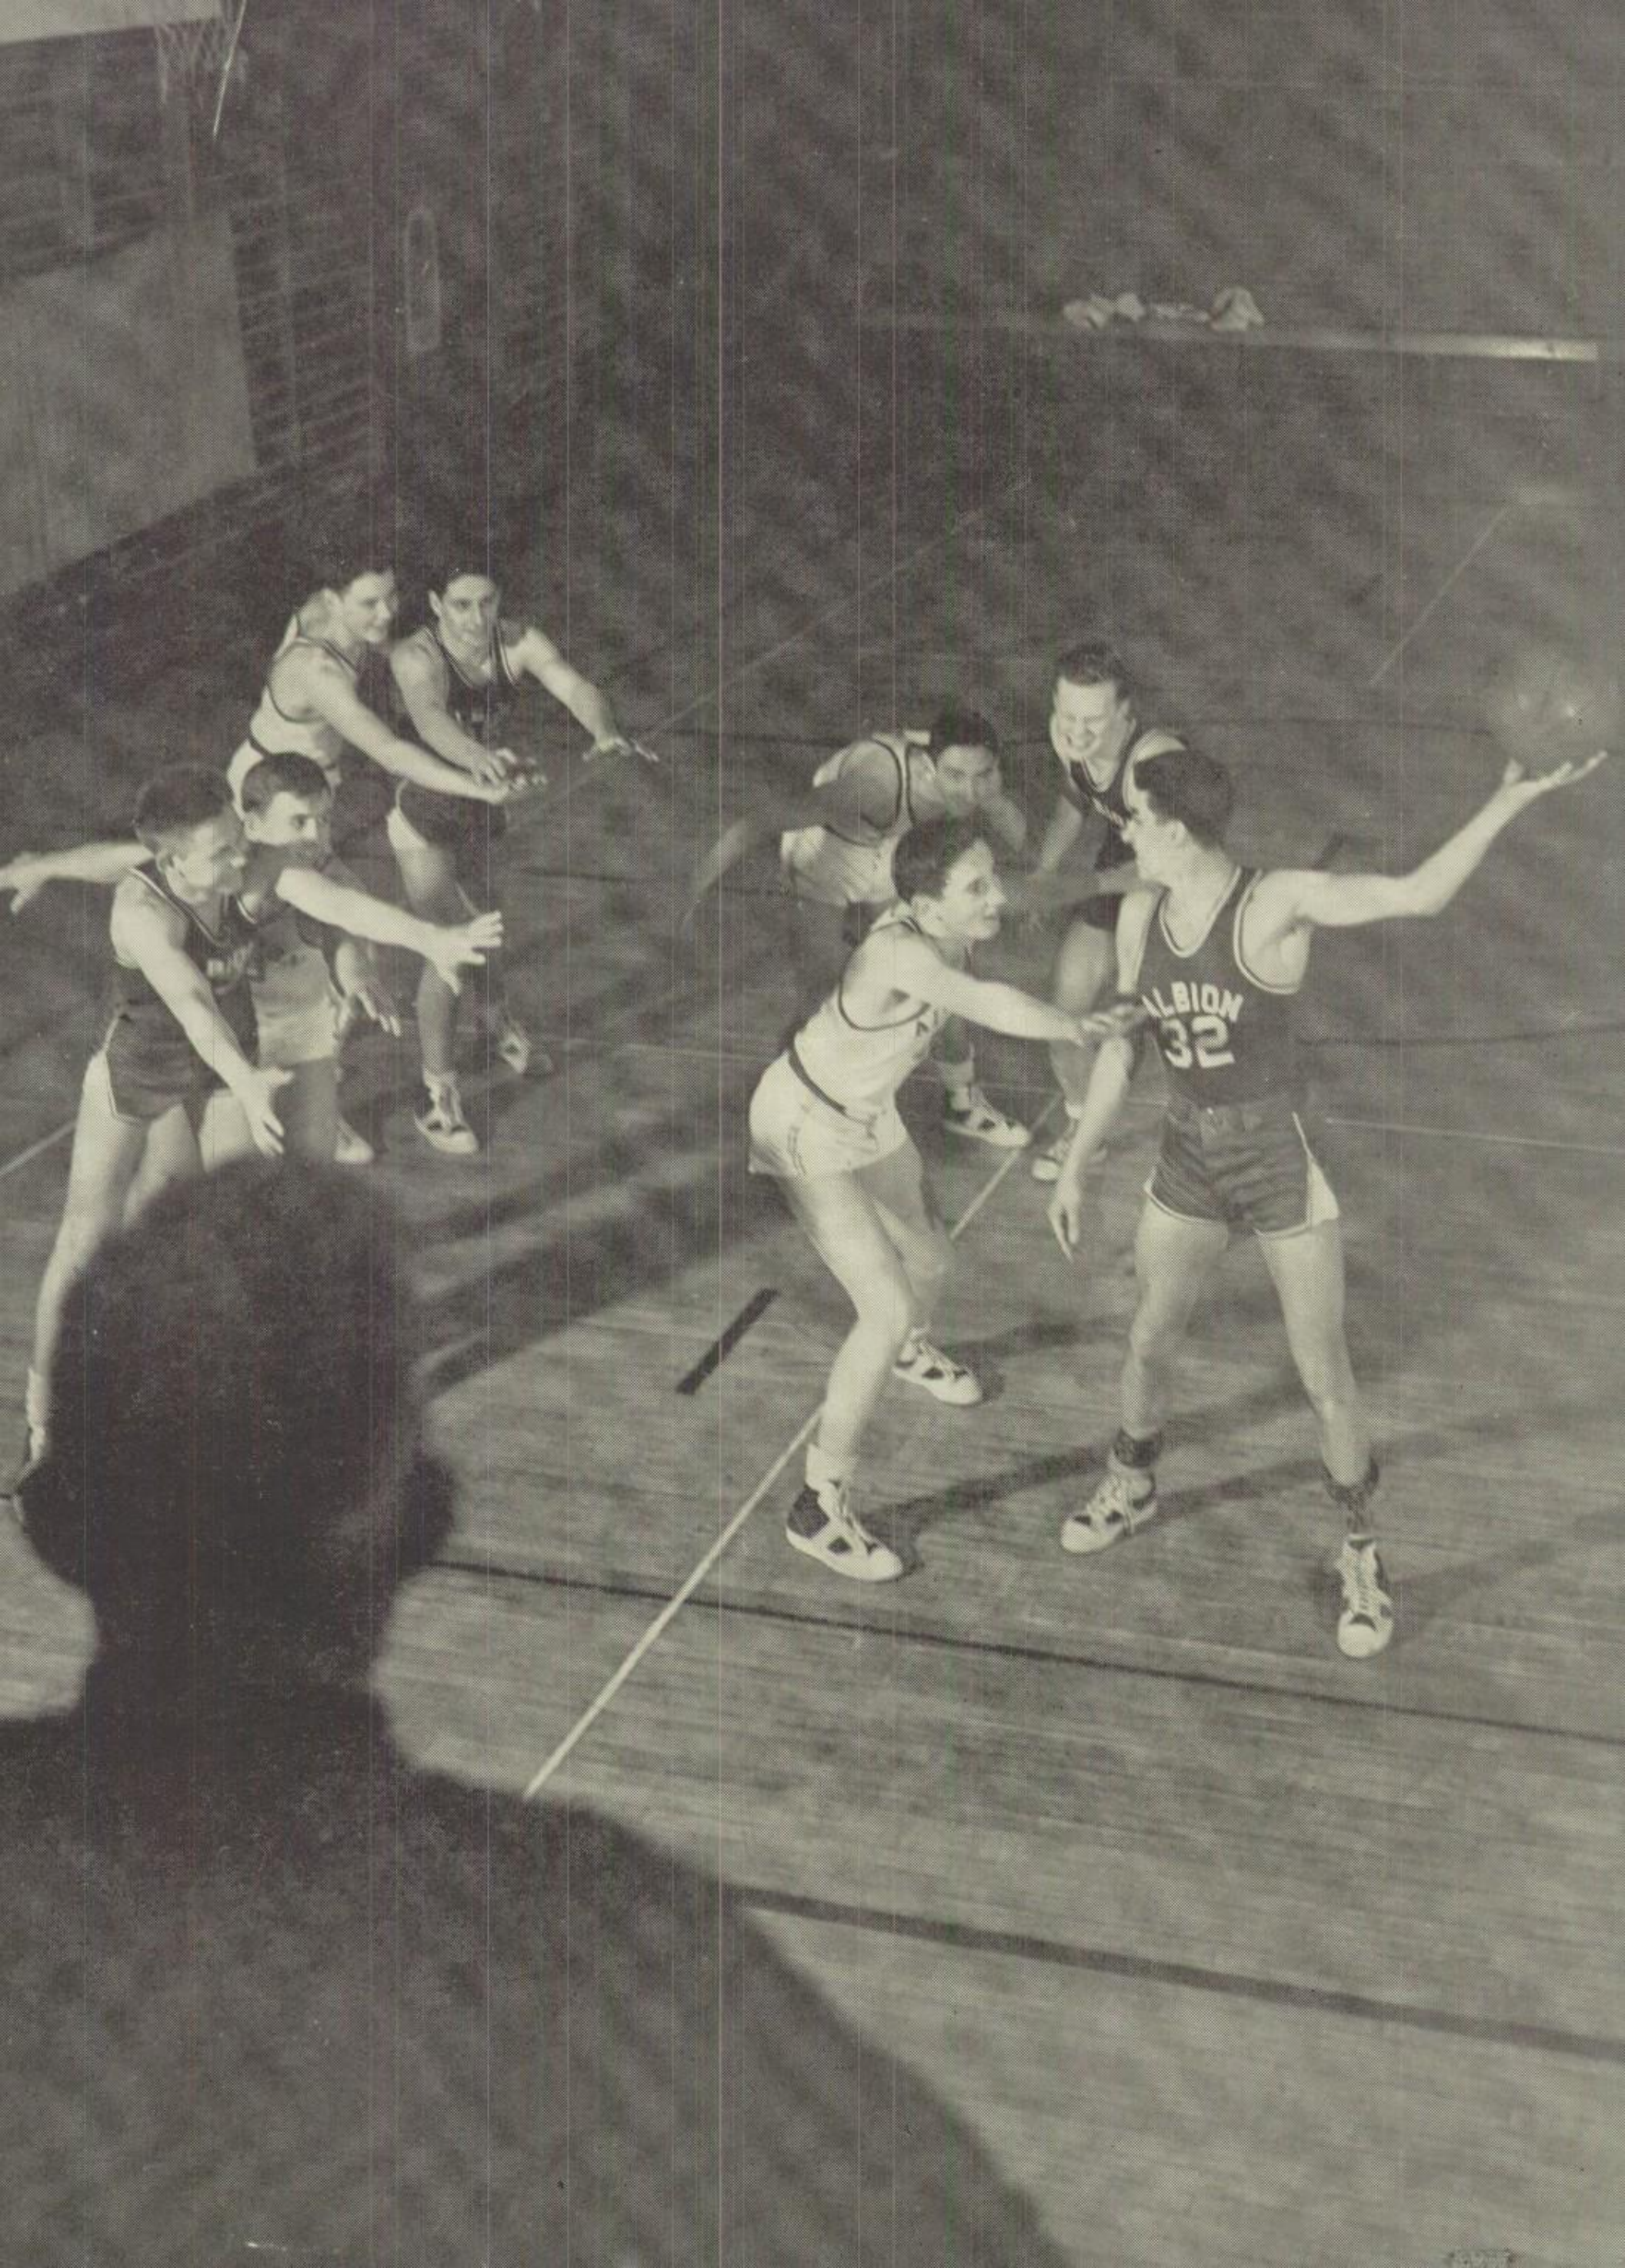

Middle: The Christmas Choir presented its traditionally excellent program of Christmas music on the day before Christmas vacation.

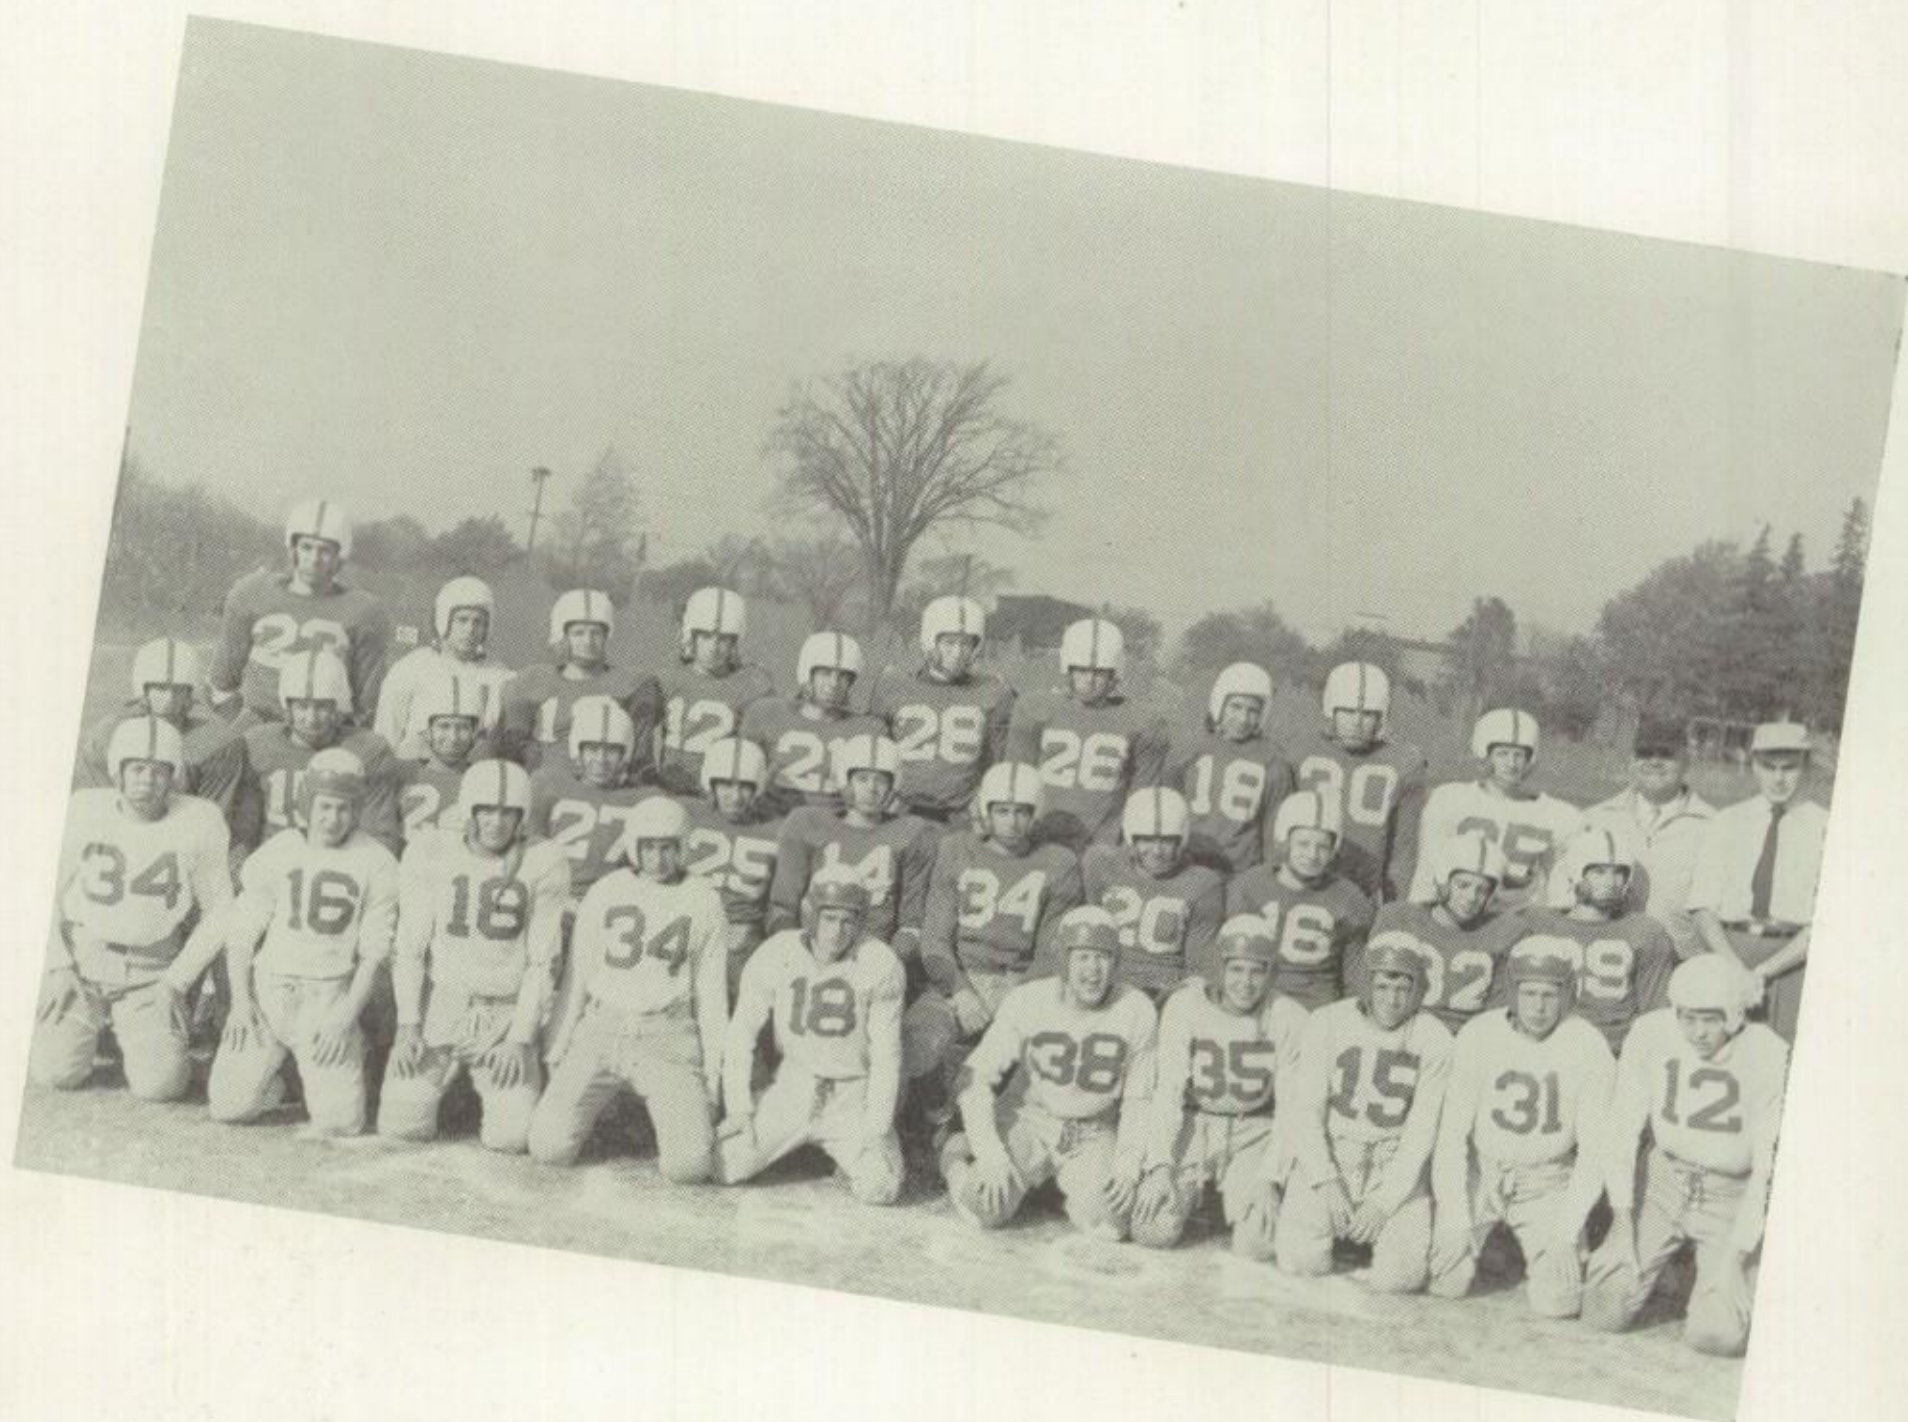

Bottom: The high-stepping majorettes lived up to the standards set for them by the band.

ATHLETICS

And now school is over for the day. There is the usual rush down the stairs, out the door to the walk and to waiting cars and buses. But today several students pass Mr. Breuilly on their way to the bleachers. A baseball game with Nayman and Smith sharing pitching honors, is the attraction. Just the right kind of weather for baseball, decides Mr. Breuilly. Still, he doesn't forget that the team has been backed by their schoolmates in all sorts of weather. In the fall during football season even rain and victorious opponents failed to dampen their enthusiasm. Basketball was even more exciting. The game with Holley that was touch and go till the last seconds when Albion won, those swish shots of Burt's, the out of town games with champions such as John Marshall — they were the high lights of the season. Now it's spring again — time for high-jumping, shot-putting and relay races. Win or lose, concludes Mr. Breuilly, athletics are important in high school.

Albion Ties Undefeated Blasdell in Otherwise Poor Year

The Albion High School griders started out the football season in a game with Clarence Central under the supervision of Coach Spierdowis and Coach Parker, the new assistant coach at A. H. S.

The captain of the team this year was Guido Monacelli, who was also voted "most valuable player" of the year. The year's first touchdown was scored by Patsy Sedita in the game with Amherst.

There were several injuries, but, in spite of these, we tied previously undefeated Blasedale.

Many of the players were post-graduates and will be leaving us this year. These are Dave Canham, Guido Monacelli, Bill Smith, Tom Sanflippo, Howard Smith, and Lloyd Eddy.

Coach Spierdowis and Coach Parker had many headaches after games, both from screaming orders at the players and from cheering when we made a touchdown.

Let us not forget the other boys who worked hard on the gridiron and who received their letters. They are Carl Babcock, Tom Brown, Dave Canham, Clark Kuhn, Guido Monacelli, Kenny Monacelli, Lenny Nayman, Sam Neri, Bob Nickerson, John Pilato, Jae Saeva, Bill Tindale, Roger Wagner, and Patsy Sedita. Some of these boys also received their chevrons.

Although this football season was not too successful, we all appreciate the boys' hard work and wish them better luck next year.

Albion Wins Nine, Loses Six in Exciting Cage Season

Albion High School's basketball squad finished the 1949-1950 season with an overall record of 9 games won and 6 games lost.

Albion fared better in non-league competition, winning eight games while losing only three, than they did in league play, in which they dropped three of four games to their opponents. However, two of the league contests were very close and might have gone either way.

In league competition Albion won one out of two games from Medina but twice lost to LeRoy, the league champions.

In non-league competition Albion twice defeated Holley, Middleport, and Kendall, won one game out of two from Brockport, defeated Bergen once and lost twice to John Marshall High of Rochester. However, the losses to the city school were well justified as that same team won the city high school championship.

The varsity included ten boys, who were all awarded letters this Spring. These include Thomas Brown, David Canham, Richard Cooper, Albert D'Andrea, Robert Leigh, Leonard Nayman, Patsy Sedita, William Smith, David Sturges, Rodger Wagner, and David Stevenson, manager.

The Albion basketball squad worked very hard during the year and played very well in all of their games. They certainly deserve a lot of credit.

Rookie Team Fielded by Coach Biordi

Although last year's baseball team had an unimpressive record of four wins and eight losses, several players showed improvement. Ralph Dollinger pitched two one-hitters, one against LeRoy, which we won four to one. He also struck out fourteen batters in the seven inning contest in the same game. The other one-hitter was against Medina, in which Dollinger struck out sixteen batters in seven innings as Albion won five to one. During the season, Albion scored 56 runs to their opponents' 63 runs.

Jim Wolfe and Ralph Dollinger were four-year lettermen, while Joe Ciarico, Lloyd Eddy, Tom Brown and Leonard Nayman received letters for the second time. First-year lettermen were Guido Monacelli, Leroy Burroughs, John Merrill, Paul VanStone, Robert Nickerson and John Paul. Managers were Arnold Licht and Joe Tomasino.

Lloyd Eddy was probably the bravest player, for it was his job to catch for some of our wild, young pitchers like John Paul and Leonard Nayman. Wolfe, Brown and Dollinger were the power hitters of the team, Merrill supplied the spirit at short-stop, and Joe Ciarico made several fine stops at second. Leonard Nayman not only pitched and played first base well, but also hit among the best. John Paul showed great improvement in pitching, and is one of our good prospects. The very few balls that somehow eluded the fine infield combination were quickly retrieved by Leroy Burroughs, Paul VanStone, Bob Nickerson, and Guido Monacelli who covered the outfield like a blanket.

The 1950 season started with a win from Holley. The next game with Brockport ended 11-6. As we go to press the team travels to LeRoy.

New Track Team and Veteran Field Performers Promise Successful Meets

The Albion High School track team had a very successful season last year. The team won five meets, tied one, and took a fourth place in the Western Conference meet at Amherst. Albion lost the county meet to Batavia by a slim one point. Albion High's track squad had several outstanding members during its 1949 season. Jim Wolfe was undefeated in all competition last year except for the sectionals in which he placed third. Jim threw the shot a distance of 49 ft. 6½ in. Dave Pask was undefeated last year in the high jump in dual, triangular and quadrangular meets. Dave cleared the bar at 5 ft. 7½ in. but was unable to tie or break the school record of 5 ft. 8½ in.

The 440 relay team set a new track record by covering the distance in 46.4. This team consisted of Ayrault, Phillips, Canham, and Paganelli. There were 16 boys on the squad who earned letters last spring. Feeling the loss of many key lettermen from last year's squad, the 1950 track team has gotten off to a slow start. There are only eight returning lettermen this year. So far the squad has lost four meets to Trott Vocational of Niagara Falls, Alexander, Brockport, and Batavia. However, they are still in the running and hope to win three dual meets and the county meet.

Girls Display Athletic Prowess at Play Days

The girls this year have certainly shown enthusiasm in the many sports activities supervised by Mrs. Biordi. The school year was started off with field hockey. Forty-eight girls turned out for this sport which was played during gym periods and after school.

The next sport participated in was archery. Last year, only Seniors were allowed to have archery, but this year, the sport was not so limited.

Volleyball was next on our sports calendar and for this activity, eighty-two girls turned out. Intramurals held the spotlight on Tuesdays and Thursdays during the winter weeks. Two leagues were set up which were most originally named the Cereal and Shampoo leagues.

One of the most loved sports is basketball. Sixty-four girls went out for intramurals in this sport. The teams were divided into two leagues, the Huff league and the Soap league. The 7th grade also participated in basketball intramurals and made up four teams.

A cheerleading clinic was held in Holley to discuss and remedy some of the problems which arise in cheerleading. This clinic proved to be most helpful in bringing about better feelings among the cheerleaders of all the schools involved.

A new idea was brought about by the P. T. A. to have a Parents' Night at school. Both girls' and boys' gym classes helped to provide the parents with an interesting gym demonstration.

Bowling took its place in our sports field. This activity was composed of four teams.

Softball was started in the spring and many girls were seen at practice.

There were a number of playdays this year in which Albion participated. The first playday was the swimming meet held in Batavia on December 10th. One or two of Albion's mermaids came home with a gold fish as first prize. The next playday was the basketball playday held in Medina on February 11th. Our newly formed team came home with the honors. A volleyball playday followed on March 18th in Albion. Nine schools participated and the victor was Batavia.

As our yearbook goes to press, the girls' spring sports schedule promises to include tennis. The addition of this sport will be a bang-up climax to the girls' sports year of 1950.

CLUB PROGRAM

In spite of a late start, the Club Program is finally a reality. Operating on a Wednesday Schedule two Fridays a month enables both service and social clubs to have a much needed meeting time. The twenty clubs started indicate a wide variety of interests and promise to make next year a full one. The secretaries of the following clubs have submitted reports of their activities:

Hi-Y The Alpha Chapter of Albion Hi-Y club was formed during the month of February for the following purpose: "To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of character". The Hi-Y Club has for its specific objectives: 1. Clean speech; 2. Clean athletics; 3. Clean scholarship; 4. Clean sportsmanship.

The Club has taken several trips to Batavia for swimming. At a swim party in February, the officers and members were inducted by the members of the Batavia Hi-Y Club. Our activity period has included basketball once a week, and a speaker of general interest to the members in the regular club period. The officers of the club are: President, Richard Cooper; Vice-President, James Keller; Secretary-Treasurer, Jerry Smith; Sergeant-at-Arms, Leonard Nayman; Advisor, Roy W. Schroeder.

Junior F. H. A. The Junior Future Homemakers of America consists of Freshman and Sophomore girls interested in homemaking.

The officers which were elected at the formation of the club are President, Joyce Irvine; Vice-President, Beverly Dawley; Secretary, Florence Birch; Treasurer, Vera Freeman; and Advisor, Miss MacArthur.

The goal of the organization is learning to live better today in order that our lives and those of our families may be better in the future.

Activities thus far this year have been a tureen supper and demonstration of homemaking activities.

The Junior F. H. A. does not intend to become a national chapter until next year.

Senior F. H. A. The senior chapter of F. H. A. has twenty-five members. Plans were made for a field trip, a Good Grooming Demonstration and the adoption of a Foreign Homemaking class. We also planned a tureen dinner one evening in April.

Library Club The Library Club's officers for this year are President, Norman Penasack; Vice-President, Shirley Nudd; and Secretary, Zola Brege. These are also committee chairmen: Program committee, Robert Collins; Social committee, Betty Ricci; Magazine committee, Grace Manno; Publicity committee, Loraine Wilkins.

The members of the Library Club have the privilege of reading all new books first, and assisting Miss Collins in the library. All Library Club members will be scheduled to work in the library in their free periods during the day.

Tri Delt Tri Delt (three d's) stands for dramatics, discussion, and debate. The Tri Delt Club has a very large membership. The total stands at thirty-eight members. Several projects have to be undertaken at one time in order to keep all of our members busy.

At our first meeting under the sponsorship of Miss Corbett and Mr. Anderson, we elected as our officers Rita Bokman, President; Janet Lauren, Vice-President; and Joan Larwood, Secretary and Treasurer. Our first inspiration was to have a play, but because time was short we started working on a radio play "Junior Miss" in which we act, direct and make our own sound effects. Our intentions are to give this radio play over the school public address system. The forming of debate teams to present debates with teams of other nearby schools is also one of our aims. We like our successful bull sessions bringing out points of dating, home life and other topics of importance.
